

CALLING ALL SERVICE USERS AND CARERS

CPAA Calendar Competition

The CPAA are producing a 2009 calendar and are looking for 13 designs, one for each month of the year, and one for the cover.

All artwork submitted must be your own design and can be in the following mediums: paintings, drawings, collages, computer generated artwork, photographs.

Only original artwork will be accepted. Computer generated artwork and digital photographs must be sent to us electronically via email or on disc. Artwork must be no bigger than A4 and in landscape format. Please state the season that you are depicting.

A prize will be awarded to each of the winners. The prize will be £35.00 of artist materials, 5 copies of the calendar and a years free subscription to the CPAA's journal 'The Approach'.

Entries must reach us by Thursday 31st July 2008. Winners will be notified during the first week in September, and their artwork will be reproduced in issue 21 of 'The Approach' to be published in October. Please note the CPAA calendar is not being sold for profit. All artwork will be returned and copyright will remain with the artist.

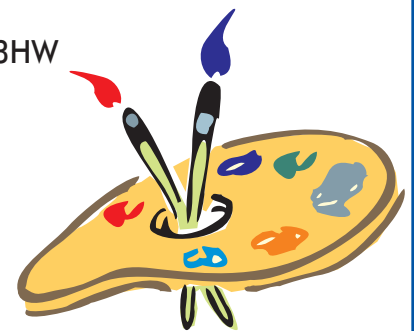

Please attach your entry to the form below, and send it to 'The CPAA Calendar Competition'
